HILLCREST
JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

1984-1985

Dear Mrs. Hrechuck
I'm sure I've
been a real experience
too teach but I've enjoyed it!

Love

your

student

Always

Duckson

Dear Mrs Hrechuk:

I know I get on your
nerves by: talking, talking etc.
but I can't help it!

Love,
Jeannie Wong
(your favorite student)

Mrs. Hrechuk,
It was an experience
that I never had before teaching and helping your math students. Have a good summer.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

It is already tomorrow. Time, which never stops on its journey, will pass before your eyes, and in only a few moments you will be members of the community, looking back on the years you spent at Hillcrest Junior High School. When you do, the photos, facts and memories in this book will be your stepping stones to a happy reminiscence.

May your memories of Hillcrest Junior High School be pleasant one, and may your futures be filled with happiness and success.

With every wish for a bright tomorrow.

Sincerely,

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Each year as a graduating class leaves the "hallowed halls of Hillcrest", it is hoped that you have been ably prepared to embark upon the next level of your education. Perhaps Kalhil Gibran best describes how we feel about you in the following passage: "Then said a teacher, 'Speak to us of Teaching.'

And he said:

'No man can reveal to you aught but that which already lies half asleep in the dawning of your knowledge.

The teacher who walks in the shadow of the temple, among his followers, gives not of his wisdom, but rather of his faith and his lovingness.

If he is indeed wise he does not bid you enter the house of his wisdom, but rather leads you to the threshold of your own mind. The astronomer may speak to you of his understanding of space, but he cannot give you his understanding.

The musician may sing to you of the rhythm which is in all space, but he cannot give you the ear which arrests the rhythm nor the voice that echoes it.

And he who is versed in the science of numbers can tell of the regions of weight and measure, but he cannot conduct you thither.

For the vision of one man lends not its wings to another man."

Farewell and Good Luck

YESTERDAY, TODAY, AND TOMORROW (by David Wong, 9-C)

The silence of the night is broken by my cries,
I lie in my crib waiting patiently for a response.
"Won't someone bring me a warm bottle of milk?"
"Oh no, not a diaper!" Hunger is mistaken for wetness once again.
Oh how I wish that my babbling could be understood;
How I wish I could crawl to get my own food.
It seems like only yesterday that I am so helpless.

The odor of Clearasil fills the room --
Oh the embarrassing moments of maturity.
And with age comes the burden of responsibility.
The pressure is on to become more independent.
The time has arrived when my goals must be set.
I spend my time exploring and learning.
This time of life is between the very young and the very old --
This time of life is today.

I sit in my big old wooden rocking chair,
My cane propped up against my arm.
I notice the wrinkles upon my aging face,
As I look in the reflection in my window to comb my balding head.
Through the window, I see my grandchildren walking up the pathway --
How nice it is to be a grandfather.
Yesterday is gone, today is here, and tomorrow is yet to come.

Jody Mansoff: When I walked into the boy's bathroom

Karen Joljart: Having to tell my other friends where I was going to school

FAVORITE SAYING

Trent Campbell: Buckwheat!

Keith Woolgar: That's life

Jo Syro: What homework?

Bill Shuster: You are so inept

Christie Nohos: Get outa my life

Laurel Petryk: What is your multiple problem?

Edwin Co: How can you "get lost" in a round school

Graham Schofield: Get suspended again Clint?

Graduates Speak

WHAT DO YOU WANT TO BE WHEN YOU GROW UP?

Graham Schofield: The floor washer at McDonalds

Bill Shuster: Mr. T's jeweller

Cathie Filipchuk: Singer on Hiney Wine commercials

Geoff Anderson: Ann Landers

Dear Mrs. Kreschuk,
Thank-you for
teaching me it was a lot of fun!

luv
angela.

Dear Mrs. Kreschuk,
Thank-you for
everything you've done for me, a lot of fun! We'll see
you again soon!
luv
